- P: Everywhere we look we are reminded of the commitment our forefathers made in order to share the Christian faith with us.

"Lord, Whose Love Through Humble Service" UMH # 581

1. Lord, whose love through humble service bore the weight of human need, who upon the cross, forsaken, offered mercy's perfect deed: We, your servants, bring the worship not of voice alone, but heart, consecrating to your purpose every gift that you impart.
3. As we worship, grant us vision, till your love's revealing light in its height and depth and greatness dawns upon our quickened sight, making known the needs and burdens your compassion bids us bear, stirring us to tireless striving your abundant life to share.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

O God, we have not dealt seriously enough with who Jesus is. Because of that, we have not considered with Christian maturity the importance of commitment, discipleship, or self-denial. Forgive us for a general acknowledgement of Christ, without specific dedication to the life you are calling us to live. Lead us in daily self-denial to lose ourselves in Christ, who will save us for our true identity. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
is seated at the right hand of the Father,

"Ellesdie" words and music by Lyte and Mozart

1. Jesus, I my cross have taken, all to leave, and follow thee;
destitute, despised, forsaken, thou from hence my all shalt be.
Perish every fond ambition, all I've sought, or hoped, or known; yet how rich is my condition: God and heaven are still my own.
2. Take my soul, thy full salvation, rise o'er sin and fear and care;
joy to find in every station, something still to do or bear; think what Spirit dwells within thee, what a Father's smile is thine,

“O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee” # 482

“Maryton” words and music by Gladden and Smith
Used by Permission. CCLI License # 2515762

- O Master, let me walk with thee in lowly paths of service free; tell me thy secret; help me bear the strain of toil, the fret of care.
- Help me the slow of heart to move by some clear, winning word of love; teach me the wayward feet to stay, and guide them in the homeward way.

3. Teach me thy patience; still with thee in closer, dearer company, in work that keeps faith sweet and strong, in trust that triumphs over wrong.
4. In hope that sends a shining ray far down the future's broadening way, in peace that only thou canst give, with thee, O Master, let me live.
