Call to Worship L = Leader P = People

L: We measure wealth in terms of money; but our greatest wealth is the salvation Christ gives to us.

P: We are wealthy, spiritually, because Christ was willing to make Himself poor on our behalf.

L: That is why material wealth is a sacred trust. We give for the sake of others as Christ gave for our sake.

P: May the love of Christ flow through His church as we take seriously the needs of others.

Processional Hymn of Praise “All Who Love and Serve Your City”
Tune: “Earth Has Many a Noble City” # 266

“Stuttgart” words and music by Routley and Witt
Used by Permission. CCLI License # 2515762

1. All who love and serve your city, all who bear its daily stress, all who cry for peace and justice, all who curse and all who bless;
2. In your day of loss and sorrow, in your day of helpless strife, honor, peace, and love retreating, seek the Lord, who is your life.
3. In your day of wealth and plenty, wasted work and wasted play, call to mind the word of Jesus, “Work ye yet while it is day.”
4. For all days are days of judgment, and the Lord is waiting still, drawing near to all who spurn him, offering peace from Calvary’s hill.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

We are wealthy people, O Lord, who prefer to complain about our debts rather than rejoice in your benevolence. Forgive us for selfishness which makes us ask of you in our prayers, but says no to others with our contributions. Give us a desire to support your church financially, not because of church bills, but because of the great gift you have given in Christ Jesus our Savior, through whom we pray. Amen.

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and will come again to judge the living and the dead.
